The class of '65 started the year off right by electing its officers. They were: President, Rick Williams, Vice-President, Doug McCoy, Secretary, Kathy Biel; and Treasurer, Joan Blewett.

Representing us on Student Council were: Kathy Biel, Linda Carlone, Dede DeGracie, LaVerne Herberg, Pat Hoffman, Cheryl Johnson, Kathy Kaiser, Terry Rainwater, Jim Runde, Rick Williams, and Don Zimmerman.

The theme of our Homecoming float was, "Hands Point To Victory". We were proud to have Lynda Wanlass reign over the Sno-Ball festivities.

We owe our successful year to our advisors: Miss Foster, Mr. Anderson, Mr. Haville, Mr. Nerby, Miss Rissetter, Miss Thompson, and Mr. Poskie.

On September 10, the class of '65 began its Sophomore year in the new Sparta Senior High School. Our officers were: President, Cheryl Evans, Vice-President, Jim Jefferson; Secretary, LaVerne Herberg; and Treasurer, DeDe DeGracie.

Those serving on Student Council were: Kathy Biel, Dede DeGracie, Pat Hoffman, Susie Isensee, Jane Masters, Ellen Raimer, Terry Burkwalt, Jim Runde, Rick Williams, and Don Zimmerman.

Kathy Biel and Lynda Wanlass represented as cheerleaders. Dave T. Nierbe was one of the football managers.

Jane Salisbury was Treasurer of the Pep Club. Dede DeGracie was Secretary of the Pep Club and Sparta's co-editor of the Spartan. Kathy Biel was Co-Editor of the Spartan.

Our Homecoming float captured first place with the theme, "We'll Harvest the Hornets".

Nancy Knapp was Treasurer of the Future Homemakers of America. Bev Gilbertson was Secretary.

Our advisors were: Mr. Blank, Mr. George, Mr. Martin, Mr. McCeller, Mr. Nerby, and Mr. Wedderkopp.

On September 3, 1963 we returned for our second year in the new school. We started out by electing the following as officers of our class: President, Ellen Raimer, Vice-President, Pat Hoffman; Secretary, Kathy Biel; Treasurer, Pauline Linnehan.

Elected to Student Council were: Kathy Biel, LaVerne Herberg, Pat Hoffman, Susie Isensee, Jim Jefferson, Pauline Linnehan, Jane Salisbury, Ellen Raimer, Jim Runde, and Lynda Wanlass.

Linda Carlone and Cheryl Neufeldt represented our class as Homecoming attendants. The theme of our float which placed second was, "Victory Is Heaven-Scent".

We had one of the most beautiful proms Sparta High School has ever seen. The theme was "Flower Drum Song", with Jim Jefferson as king and Nark Harris as queen. Ellen Raimer and LaVerne Herberg did a wonderful job as prom chairman. Harold Jones and Ron Meyer organized the building. The Modernaires provided the music.

Kathy Biel and Lynda Wanlass were great assets to the cheerleading squad.

STUDENT COUNCIL ACTIVITIES

The 1965 Student Council had a busy year under the leadership of its president LaVerne Herberg, Vice-President Ellen Raimer, and Secretary-treasurer Pat Hoffman.

The first accomplishment of the new Council was the printing and framing of the Sparta High School Code of Ethics.

The Noon Hour Recreation Committee, with Jim Jefferson as its chairman, scheduled two noon-hour dances per week for the enjoyment of the students.

Delegates to the State Student Council Convention at Oskos were: Cindy Herberg, Ann Runde, LaVerne Herberg, and Jim Runde, a discussion leader.

The Student Exchange Committee, Chairman Ellen Raimer, organized exchanges with Tamah and Lacrosse Central. This program proved to be productive, since all Councils learned something about the others.

To promote school spirit, Student Council members gave a skit performance at one of the football pep assemblies.

The Civic Committee, headed by Barb Hefling, initiated a Christmas project for which all students donated either new or repairable toys and clothes. A general work-day was held so that the donations could be fixed and wrapped.

The Snoball Dance was planned by Ann Runde's dance committee. The semi-formal dance was held during Christmas vacation.

About four Dress-up days were scheduled during the year. Student-government day and "mad-plaid" day were also handled by Doug McCoy's committee.

The annual Twirp Dance, with disc jockey Johnny Walleen and the Contemporary Three, was held March 14th. Kangaroo Court was ruled by a "Beatle Jury", and the blacklisted "Criminals" suffered the usual ridiculous punishments. A new feature of Twirp this year was Mr. Irresistible Day, a day on which all girls were forbidden to talk to boys. The boy who tempted the most girls was later named Mr. Irresistible. These festivities were organized by the Twirp committee, headed by Pat Hoffman.

The final new project sponsored by the Council was the Student Council $1.00 Scholarship for an active senior planning further education.

The cooperation of the entire student body enabled this Council to report a successful year.

DEFENSIVE

The first game of the 1964 South Central Conference football season for Coach Mike Farley's Spartan ended with Highland Center on the short end of a 14-0 score. Offensively, Coach Farley's attack was led by Lee Hard, Tom Hagedorn, and Dale Jensen while the Spartan line backs were Dale Roberts, Mike Stenhardt, Steve Krembs, and Billy Dutton. Highland Center's attack was led by Tom Hagedorn. The game was marked by long runs around both team's flanks.

A rain-soaked Memorial field was the scene of a heart-breaking 6-6 tie between an inspired group of Spartans and a formidable Highland team. A well-rounded Highland team with a strong offensive line and a potent offense was the villain of the night.

A somewhat anticipated game of the season was the game between the Spartans and the Highland team. The game was a hard fought battle with the Spartans leading 6-0 at halftime. The Highland team's offense was led by Lee Hard and Tom Hagedorn. The game was a hard fought battle with the Spartans leading 6-0 at halftime. The Highland team's offense was led by Lee Hard and Tom Hagedorn. Dale Roberts, and Pete Ambelang for a hard hitting performance.

The meeting of Sparta and Mauston was a one man affair in the person of Jim Jefferson. Jefferson was the star of the game. He scored four touchdowns with three of them in the fourth quarter. The game was a hard fought battle with the Spartans leading 6-0 at halftime. The Highland team's offense was led by Lee Hard and Tom Hagedorn. Dale Roberts, and Pete Ambelang for a hard hitting performance.

FOOTBALL WRITE-UP

FACTS AND FIGURES

Led by Quarterback Jim Moe, the Black River Falls Tigers handed Sparta its only defeat of the season, 26-0. Overpowered and out-sized, Sparta's defense played a good game but not good enough for the circumstances. Lee Izard played a good game for Coach Farley but jittery nerves proved to be Sparta's downfall.

Sophomore Gayle Horner was called into action on October 27 to put down a stubborn Viroqua football team. Plagued by fumbles, dropped and intercepted passes, and weird 'off center' plays, Sparta managed to hand the Blackhawks a 21-7 defeat. The late Sparta surge was the result of defensive work by Roy Veith and Dale Roberts.

The 1964 gridiron finale found Sparta against Nekoosa Papermakers. Tying for second place with a 10-1-1 record was a comparatively easy task for Farley's men as they proceeded to wear down and demoralize Nekoosa. Tom Stuebe sprinted for touchdowns with Dale Jensen adding six points in one of the keenest pass plays of the season. Defensively, Co-Captains Dale Roberts and Wally Dutton did an outstanding job.

Thus, two seasons under Mike Farley resulted in 13-1-2 record.

BASKETBALL WRITE-UP

The 1964-1965 edition of the Sparta Senior High School basketball team shorted out a "long season" under the guidance of coach Bill Zorn at Reedsburg. Pat Barkus was high man with 24 points. The contest was hard fought but Sparta could not match Reedsburg's height or outside shooting. The final score had Sparta losing 78-61.

An aggressive group of Sparta courtmen handily defeated Richland Center at Sparta with a score of 67-58. Outstanding performances were contributed by Pat Barkus with 28 points and Bob Nichol who hit at long range for 11. Bob Porke led Richland Center with 25 points. Rebounding gave the Spartans the game.

Nekoosa emerged from the S.C.C. cellar to defeat Sparta by a surprising 71-60 tally. Sparta continually lost the ball and experienced periods of cold shooting from the field. The Papermakers outlasted and outjumped the Spartans who were led by Pat Barkus and Bill Ballman in the scoring department. Tom Jensen did a good defensive job along with Terry Rainwater.

The following evening Sparta avenged the Friday night defeat by lonely Viroqua. The game's hero was Terry Rainwater who sank two final second free throws. Pat Barkus put on 18 points while Tom Jensen had 13. The score was Sparta 46, Viroqua 43.

A classy group of ball players from Black River Falls thoroughly worked over the Sparta team in a game in which Sparta had troubles all over. Steve Krembs was the only bright spot in the affair as he rebounded and shot with notable consistency. The score had Sparta on the short end of 76-59.

Experience and size were the things which topped the scales in the Mauston - Sparta contest. Cold shooting in the second and third quarters all but broke Sparta's back. Barkus, Jensen, and Ballman played offensively well while Nichols and Krembs did the job on defense. The score was 71-57 in favor of Mauston.

A one man show by Ron Grovesteen marshalled the Tomah - Sparta game at Tomah. Grovesteen hit fifty points. Don Stelter did well for Sparta hitting 10 points along with Barkus and Ballman. The entire Sparta bench got into action but no workable combination could be found. The score of the arch-rivals contest: 96-57.

Pat Barkus did his best along with the other Spartan courtmen to give Baraboo a pesky time during the entire contest. The second quarter found Sparta not making one field goal. Coach Zorn substituted the entire bench and all of these players collaborated with the starters to give Baraboo a hard time even though the 92-62 score belies this fact.

A runaway freight train in Portage uniforms toppled Sparta 107-70 on February 8. A fast break coupled with easy baskets left Sparta in the dust. Pat Barkus had 29 points while Tom Jensen had 15. Sparta got out played the entire game.

Wisconsin Dells used free throws to defeat Sparta 69-59. Bob Nichols turned his best season performance although he scored only nine points. Pat Barkus led Sparta scoring with 25 points while Rainwater and Jensen had 10 each. A fourth quarter rally fell short although the Spartans played a good ball game.

Losing their fifth in a row, Sparta lost to Nekoosa by a score of 79-49. Fouls proved to be Sparta's downfall. Barkus had only 10 points but gave his usual "all" to the team effort. Height and hustle were the finishing factors in the affair.

Pat Barkus set a new school scoring mark and helped to defeat hapless Viroqua on February 12. Barkus had 45 points even though he sat out the final three minutes. Sparta had a good defensive night although fouls put some pressure on the team. The final score: 90-58.

Sparta split a pair of South Central Conference games the following weekend. On Friday night, Black River Falls found that revengeful Sparta had a good first quarter. Tom Jensen did his finest job of the year both offensively and defensively. He had 16 points. Nichols, Doug Mannel, and Rainwater did well on defense. The tally was 70-49.

The following evening Sparta upset Sauk-Prairie. Barkus had 21, Jensen 19, and Nichols 13 for Sparta. The game was a see-saw affair but cool free throw shooting by Barkus iced the game. Defense won the game for the Spartans as the score was 57-55.

Sparta was never in the game against a bunch of victory hungry players from Mauston. Vic Koppang led Mauston while Barkus, Mannel, and Rainwater pored the Sparta attack. A second quarter effort led by Pat Barkus fell short of victory but proved Sparta did have a "team" club. The score was 98-74.

In the season finale, Torma tripped sparta at sparta. A close affair the whole evening, sparta gave Torma all they could handle and at times - even more. Ron Grovesteen came back to haunt sparta again, he was much more contained this time thanks to defensive efforts by Jensen and Nichols. Pat Barvis had 17 points, Jensen 12, Rainwater 12, and Nichols 11. The game ended 100-92 decided by free throws. Sparta played like pros this evening, but it wasn't enough.

This is the first season under the guidance of Bill Zorn Jr. for nd sparta. It was a record of 1-1. Pat Barvis deserves special mention even though he didn't get it from the South Central League. But Nichols and Terry Rainwater also deserve mention for their steady to + effort, hard and praiseworthy efforts during a fruitless season in the victory column. When the going gets tough, the tough get going and sparta had some tough going, but was blessed with some tough go-getters who grew in stature.
